

Exclusive New Private Aviation Partnership for Guests of Four Seasons Resorts in Scottsdale and Santa Fe

RYL provides a variety of options to make travel seamless

September 18, 2014, Scottsdale, U.S.A.

In partnership with RYL, a global private jet brokerage firm, Four Seasons Resort Scottsdale at Troon North and Four Seasons Resort Rancho Encantado Santa Fe are offering exclusive new private aviation options for their guests.

"Our guests often prefer the ease and comfort of private aviation, and we are thrilled to partner with RYL to provide a multitude of options," says Regional Vice President and Four Seasons Resort Scottsdale General Manager Vince Parrotta. "Whether flying into Scottsdale Airport or Santa Fe Airport, guests can rest assured that RYL will customize the option to best meet their travel needs."

"There is a natural synergy between both brands," agrees RYL President Andres Sistos. "Business and leisure travellers continue to look for all-inclusive experiences, and by establishing this partnership, we can work together to ensure that a guest's stay at either property is seamless from start to finish."

Guests booking with RYL and either Four Seasons property will enjoy a special welcome amenity and complimentary upgrade. The RYL Charter Specialist works with guests to identify the best aircraft and route for each flight. RYL grants access to a network of more than 4,000 aircraft and 5,000 airports around the world. Fleets range from helicopters and light jets to long range heavy jets and airliners.
